FIRST TROOP PHILADELPHIA CITY CAVALRY

Oldest Military Organization in the United States

It will no doubt interest our many readers to learn that this day, the 17th of November, is the 126th Anniversary of the famous First Troop Philadelphia City Cavalry, the oldest military organization in the United States. For over 100 years it has been the custom of the Troop to celebrate its Birthday by a Parade and Banquet. This year's Anniversary will be given an additional feature by the laying of the corner stone of the new Armory, a full account of which will be noted in the next issue of "Our State Army and Navy" Journal.

From the day of its founding, the "First Troop Philadelphia City Cavalry," has maintained a continuous military existence, and for more than one hundred years a troop of cavalry composed of its members bearing the same name, in the service of the State of Pennsylvania, the officers commissioned, and the rank and file enlisted according to law. Its own armory contains the full material for a troop of legal maximum strength, consisting of camp and garrison equipage, horse furniture, clothing, arms and accoutrements. All members must enter this association as private soldiers, and the rolls show the names of many who had attained distinction as officers in active service before they became members, as well as the names of many distinguished soldiers who received their early military training in its ranks.

The Troop was organized November 17, 1774, by the association of twenty-eight gentlemen, who met at the Hall of the Carpenters' Company within a few days after the first meeting of the first Congress. This Troop was the first organization in the Colonies of volunteers associated for the purpose of maintaining the rights of the people against the continued oppression of the British ministry. The members armed and equipped at their own expense and chose their officers. A standard (which is illustrated on page 1) was devised and presented to the Troop by Captain Markoe in 1775; this standard shows the thirteen stripes for the first time in any flag and it is supposed suggested "the striped Union flag" hoisted at Cambridge in December, 1775. This standard is one of the highly prized relics of the Troop and is still in good condition. The first recorded duty brought the Troop into notice of General Washington, who left Philadelphia June 23, 1775, to take command of the army at Cambridge, Massachusetts. He was escorted by the Troop as far as Kingsbridge, New York. The Troop served with honor in the War of the Revolution; it was particularly distinguished in the battles of Trenton and Princeton, and received at that time the following complimentary letter from General Washington:

"The Philadelphia Troop of Light Horse, under the command of Captain Morris, having performed their Tour of duty, are discharged for the present—I take this Opportunity of returning my most sincere thanks to the Captain and to the Gentlemen who compose the Troop, for the many essential services which they have rendered to their Country, and to me personally, during the Course of this severe Campaign. Tho' composed of Gentlemen of Fortune, they have shown a noble Example of discipline and subordination, and in several Actions have shown a Spirit of Bravery which will ever do Honor to them and will ever be gratefully remembered by me.

Go Washington.

Given at Head-Quarters,
Morris Town, this 23rd Jany., 1777."

In the autumn of 1777 the Troop took part in the battles of Brandywine and Germantown, camped at Valley Forge, and served in the military operation in the neighborhood of Philadelphia during that winter and until the city was evacuated by the British in June, 1778. During 1779 and 1780 the Troop was employed in services assigned by the Congress or the State authorities, and in June, 1780, having again marched to join the army in New Jersey, received another letter of thanks from Washington. During the remaining years of the war the Troop was several times in active service in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. In April, 1789, the Troop escorted General Washington on his way to New York, where he was inaugurated President of the United States, and in 1794 marched in his command to the western counties of Pennsylvania to suppress the Whiskey Insurrection. In the second war with Great Britain, the Troop was in active service with sixty-six men, and in the Mexican War several of its members served as officers in the United States Army. Its Captain, John Butler, died in Mexico, as Captain of the 3d U. S. Dragoons. In the War of the Rebellion the Troop again, furnishing its own horses and equipment, served (Captain Thomas C. James, eighty-six men) under the first call for volunteers. It was the only volunteer Cavalry accepted and was assigned to the Second Regiment U. S. Cavalry, under command of Colonel George H. Thomas, and served in the campaign of the Shenandoah Valley. It was mustered out under orders, containing the most complimentary expression by General Banks and General (then Colonel) George H. Thomas:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE SHENANDOAH.

SANDY HOOK, August 10th, 1861.

SPECIAL ORDERS, No. 170.

As the term of service of the Philadelphia City Troop expires on the 13th instant, it will proceed to Hagerstown to-morrow and take transportation to Philadelphia, where it will be mustered out of the United States service. The Major-General commanding takes this occasion to say to the officers and men of the Troop that their duties during their term of service have been performed in a perfect manner, and that he fully appreciates the patriotic self-denial which has prompted them to undergo so many privations and hardships in the service, and for the benefit of their country.

By order of Major-General BANKS,

ROBERT WILLIAMS,
Assistant Adjutant General.

HEADQUARTERS FIRST BRIGADE, DEPARTMENT OF THE SHENANDOAH.

Camp, near SANDY HOOK, MD., August 11, 1861.

SPECIAL ORDERS, No. 4.

In compliance with Special Orders, No. 170, August 10, 1861, from the Headquarters of the Department, the First Troop Philadelphia City Cavalry is relieved from duty with this Brigade, and will, as soon as practicable, march to Hagerstown, Md., and take transportation to Philadelphia, where it will be mustered out of the service of the United States.

The Colonel commanding the Brigade desires to thank the officers, non-commissioned officers and privates of the Troop for the promptness with which they have discharged their respective duties while under his command. The efficiency and discipline of the Troop, as exhibited on all occasions, clearly shows that the reputation established for it by its original founders, embracing among its numbers some of the most distinguished men of the country, has not been tarnished by a single act of unworthiness.

The Troop may be assured that its services have been appreciated, and that the gentlemanly bearing of its officers and soldierly conduct of its men will be long remembered by the officers of the regiment with which it has been associated.

By order of Colonel GEORGE H. THOMAS,

A. P. PORTER,
Acting Assistant Adjutant General.

Upon this discharge, the members, with the knowledge acquired in that campaign, found positions as officers in Regiments then being recruited. The rolls show the names of over seventy who obtained rank and distinction during the four following years. The men who did not enter the service as officers recruited the ranks of the company and were in field several times for short enlistments during the years 1862, 1863 and 1864. The service of the Troop in the Spanish-American War is so well known at this time that it seems needless to go into details. It might, however, be interesting to note that on May 7, 1898, every officer, non-commissioned officer and private enlisted in the United States service for two years, many declining commissions in other organizations, and during this campaign distinguished itself, thus upholding the time-honored tradition of the Troop.

STATE RIFLE AND REVOLVER MATCH

The State rifle matches this year proved an unqualified success. They were the first held since the reorganization of the National Guard of Pennsylvania. Many new faces were seen on the range among the team members and not a few of the old men were missed.

Colonel Patterson made his first appearance on the range as General Inspector of Rifle Practice and Major Clarke was the only member of the executive force who held his old position. For this reason upon him fell the greater part of the directing and conducting of the various events.

The Regimental match was won by the Sixth Regiment. The result being as follows:

Sixth Regiment	321
Fourteenth Regiment	317
Sixteenth Regiment	309
Twelfth Regiment	309
First Regiment	303
Thirteenth Regiment	299
Fourth Regiment	279
Third Regiment	276
Ninth Regiment	260
Eighth Regiment	251
Eighteenth Regiment	251
Fifth Regiment	249
Tenth Regiment	213
Second Regiment	201

A perfect gale blew across the range during this match, making accurate shooting almost an impossibility.

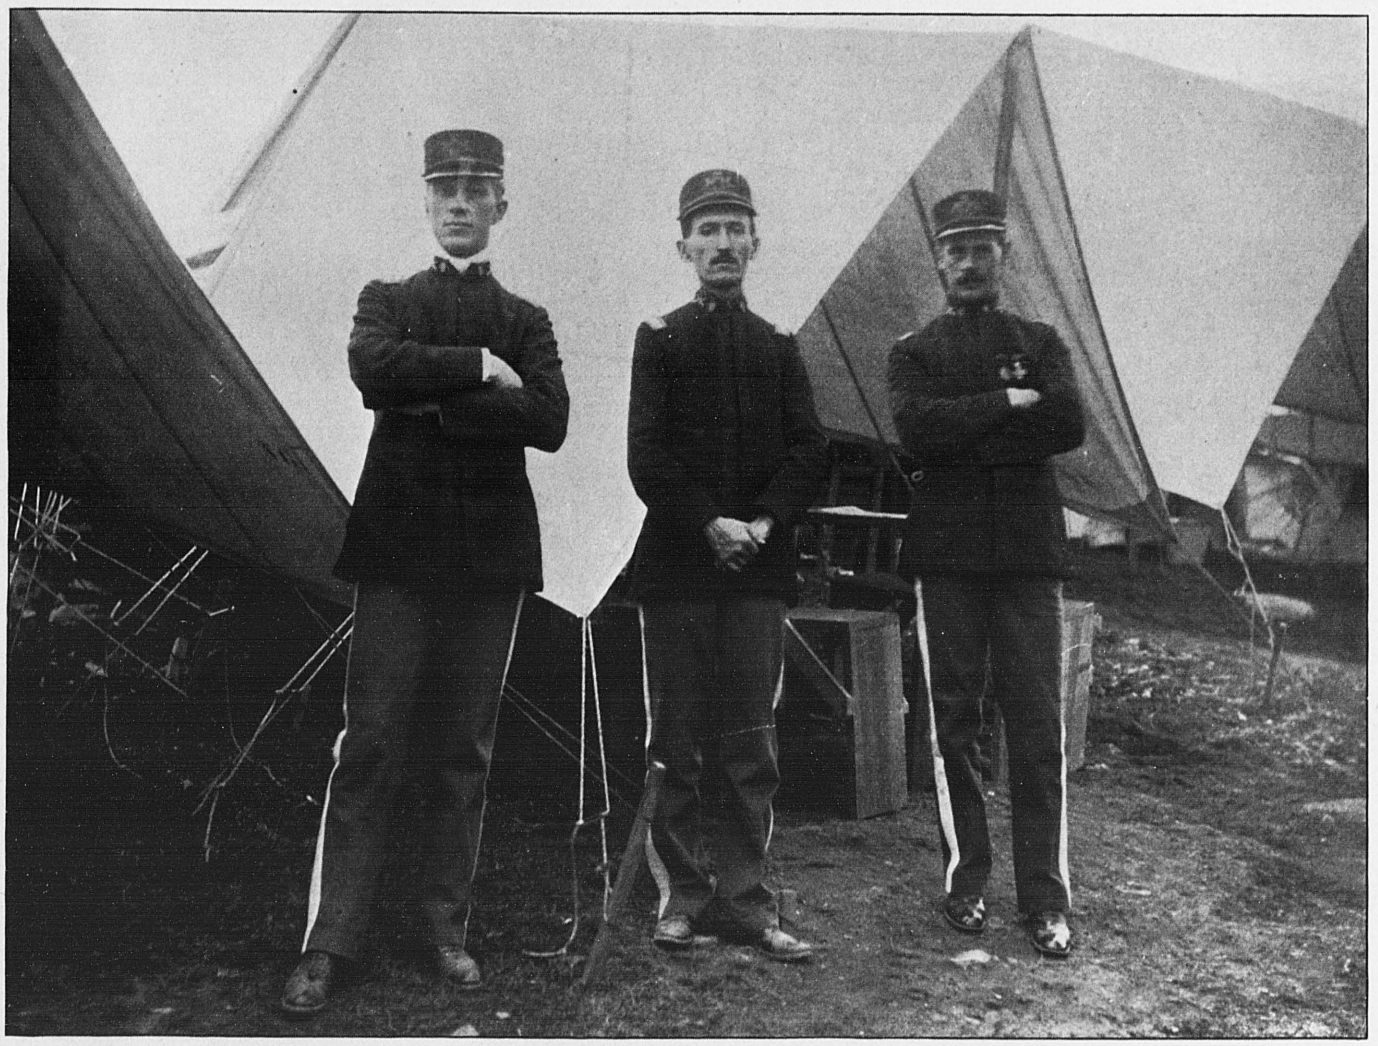
The Skirmish match resulted in a victory for the Twelfth Regiment, the result being as follows:

Twelfth Regiment	384
First Regiment	378
Sixteenth Regiment	361
Sixth Regiment	346
Thirteenth Regiment	340
Third Regiment	340
Fourteenth Regiment	334
Eighth Regiment	333
Fourth Regiment	326
Ninth Regiment	324
Eighteenth Regiment	271
Fifth Regiment	269
Second Regiment	256
Tenth Regiment	221

The First Brigade captured the Brigade match by the narrow margin of two points. Having won the cup three times it is now the property of the Brigade, and is in Gen Schall's possession. The result was as follows:

First Brigade	1030
Second Brigade	1028
Third Brigade	972

The Cavalry match was won by the First City Troop, which now owns the cup, through having won it three times. The following was the result:



Officers of Company "H," 4th Infantry, Columbia Park, Shenandoah
CAPT. MARSHALL L. CASE, 1st LIEUT. J. M. SHINDEL, 2d LIEUT. HOWARD M. BRIGHT

3rd Brigade National Guard of Pennsylvania.

Mt. Gretna, Penna., August 10th, 1900.

General J. P. S. Gobin,

Commanding Third Brigade, N. G. P.

Mt. Gretna, Penna.

S I R:-

The Regimental Commanders of your Brigade having noticed in the public press an intimation upon your part that you might resign your Command, beg leave to say that it is not only the unanimous wish of the Regimental Commanders, but of every man in the Brigade that you should remain at its head.

It is not necessary for us to assure you that you enjoy in a most marked degree the absolute confidence, loyalty and devotion of every officer and man in your Brigade.

During your long service in the National Guard of Pennsylvania as a Captain, Colonel, and for the last fifteen years, Commander of the Third Brigade, you have so impressed yourself upon the National Guard and especially upon your present command that we cannot but feel that it would be a distinct loss to the Brigade and to the National Guard should you retire at this time.

Very respectfully,

C. J. Daugherty — Colonel, 9th Regt. Inf'y

L. A. Watres — Colonel, 13th Regt. Inf'y

[illegible] — Colonel, 12th Regt. Inf'y

Theo. F. Hoffman — Colonel, 8th Regt. Inf'y

E. J. O'Neill — Colonel, 4th Regt. Inf'y

I heartily concur in the foregoing expression of the opinions and wishes of the Regimental Commanders

Truman M. Beam

Fremont M. Ott.
Captain Cavalry Squadron Troop.

The Cavalry skirmish match, which was shot for this year for the first time, was won by the Sheridan Troop. The result was as follows:

Sheridan Troop	336
First City Troop	328
Second City Troop	300
Governor's Troop	260

Lieutenant Mehard, of the First Regiment, won the State championship medal with an average of 90.2.

Lieutenant Mehard also won the Inspector of Rifle Practice match with the following score:

The Fourteenth Regiment won the Miller trophy, emblematic of the championship of the Second Brigade.

Lieutenant H. T. Mehard won the First Brigade championship medal with a score of 96.

Captain Stokes, Thirteenth Regiment, won the Third Brigade known distance medal with an average of 89.2.

Sergeant Straley, Twelfth Regiment, won the Third Brigade skirmish medal with a score of 91.

There was great dissatisfaction expressed with the present target for competitive firing. While it treats all alike it is very unfair to the shooter in many respects. The old bull's-eye target is far better for matches.

The work of Captain T. H. P. Todd, First Regiment, in charge of the revolver range, must not be overlooked. Captain Todd's services were invaluable.

SCORES OF REVOLVER CONTEST, 1ST BRIGADE, N. G. P., AUGUST 30, 1900.

Open to Commissioned Officers, 1st Brigade; 6 shots each at 25, 50 and 75 yards, within time limit—one minute—at each distance; ecliptical bullseye target: First prize, "Hatfield Trophy," to be won three times, and a gold medal. Second prize, silver medal.

AT the present time there is considerable discussion about our system of inspections, and in the 1st Brigade it is stated that some of the regimental commanders have gone so far as to formulate and present a letter on this subject to the authorities. Colonel C. Bow Dougherty, of the 9th Infantry, a very efficient officer and of many years experience in the Guard, believes that an officer from the regular establishment be requested and assigned to the Governor's staff with the rank and pay of a Major or Lieutenant-Colonel, whose duty it would be to inspect every organization in the State and pass an unbiased opinion on existing conditions.

THE question has been raised on the pay of inspecting officers. We believe the pay to be perfectly just as the officers of the Guard are already making sacrifices which are frequently injurious to their civil pursuits; not only should the pay of the inspectors remain if the old system is to be continued, but the line officers should be compensated as well for at least two weeks in advance of their respective inspections, as in nearly every case it necessitates hard work in rounding up the Company. If not allowed a cash payment, a clothing inducement might be made, similar to that of other States in which an officer is permitted to draw equipments amounting to $50 annually, thus lessening his personal expense.

THE great coal strike and the Shenandoah campaign of 1900 are things of the past. That no bloodshed occurred during the six weeks of the strike is the best evidence of the sound judgment used by both the military and labor authorities. The nearest to a clash that the troops experienced was on the night of October 15th and the morning of the 16th, when Colonel O'Neill with a provisional Battalion turned back several thousand determined men in the defiles of the Panther Creek Valley, who saw at a glance that the troops meant business, and when the leaders were cautioned not to proceed, they judiciously retraced their steps and quietly and systematically dispersed. Thus practically ended the great coal strike in the anthracite region.

Our naval force is experiencing considerable difficulty in securing a city wharf, centrally located, for their winter quarters. The one at Race street, which is controlled by the Board of City Properties, is the most desirable, especially as many of the members of the Reserves live in the suburban parts of Philadelphia, and on their respective drill nights can reach Race street more conveniently. The present rendezvous is at Queen street wharf, and the men are frequently obliged to climb over two or three freight cars before reaching the pier. These and other obstructions in reaching the ship are very discouraging, and the naval force feel that the city fathers should have a little more interest in their welfare.

At the present time, Lieuts. Bond and Smith are actively engaged in teaching the men Infantry tactics, and the drills are largely attended. An engineer corps as an adjunct to the Reserves is needed, and under the Act of 1893 this is permissible. The present naval contingent could easily get along with twenty men and one officer. A very desirable officer for this Corps would be Mr. Taussig, of the U. G. I. Co. He is a first-class engineer and is very much interested in the work of the naval force, having on several occasions volunteered his services on short runs of the Shearwater.

The Shearwater, which is the practice ship of our State navy, is badly in need of a new deck. The present one is of soft pine, and when the vessel was turned over to the State authorities, she required considerable caulking and other repairing. There is no available fund for this purpose, and it is expected that some assistance will be obtained from Harrisburg before long.

Personal Mention

Major H. J. Crump, formerly Assistant Adjutant General of the 1st Brigade and Quartermaster of the 3d Pa. Volunteer Infty., has just returned from an extended trip through the Island of Cuba, the visit being in the interest of some of his clients. For several weeks he was quartered with the officers of the 2d U. S. Artillery, and a most pleasant time was spent with his old comrades in arms.

In the election of Captain Thomas Spencer Crago to the vacant majority which existed so long in the 10th Infantry, and which caused all kinds of "wire pulling," we can but congratulate the line upon its excellent selection. Major Crago is a veteran in both the State and United States service, having served with his Company in the Spanish-American and Philippine Wars, and for many years commanded one of the best Companies in the 2d Brigade. He enlisted as a private in January, 1889, and after several years service in the ranks was elected to 2d Lieutenant. June, 1894, he was unanimously chosen 1st Lieutenant, and on October 31, 1900, he was honored with the Oak Leaf.

Colonel Frank Patterson, Division Ordnance Officer, is quite an enthusiast on pistol practice and is paying particular attention to the keeping of records of this branch in his department.

Pistol practice is a sport, and has been neglected in many parts of the State for a long time past. Colonel Patterson has greatly interested himself in the reorganization of the Pittsburg Revolver Club, which, in the future, will be known as the Pittsburg Military Revolver Club. An application for a charter has been filed by a prominent attorney of Allegheny County, and when this is granted, it is proposed to construct a modern range in the basement of the 18th Regiment Armory. The range will also be used for rifle practice by substituting graduating targets.

The club is not alone confined to military men, but is open to civilians who may be interested in this particular kind of shooting.

Major THOMAS S. CRAGO, 10th Regiment

The inspectors of rifle practice of the 1st Brigade, headed by Major D. S. B. Chew Ordnance Officer, will on December 6 present to Colonel Wm. F. Richardson, keeper of the State Arsenal, a beautifully engrossed set of resolutions, appropriately inscribed, as a mark of their appreciation for the many courtesies he extended them during the recent State contests at Mt. Gretna.

Captain Charles T. Cresswell, the popular and efficient Adjutant of the 3d Infantry, is a veteran in the service of the State, having entered Company "A" of the 1st Regiment Infantry immediately after his graduation from Princeton in December, 1880. After three years' service in the Infantry he enlisted in the 1st Troop, Philadelphia City Cavalry, February 5, 1883. In 1886 he received his Corporal chevrons, and in 1887 was made Sergeant. After four years of hard work as a duty Sergeant he was appointed 1st Sergeant, 1893, and honorably discharged February 5, 1894, thus serving in the time honored troop eleven years. At the reorganization of Battery "A" he was commissioned Senior 1st Lieutenant January 31, 1898, and commissioned in the United States service with the same rank May 6, 1898, resigning his U. S. commission July 21st of the same year. March 3, 1899, he received the appointment of 1st Lieutenant and Adjutant of the 3d Regiment Infantry, and was commissioned Captain under the Act of Assembly, 1899.

In 1895 he made a tour of the world, traveling in Holland, France, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Russia, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Italy, Egypt, Ceylon, China, Japan, Sandwich Islands, and the United States. He was admitted as a member of the Philadelphia Bar in 1884, and was a member of the firm of Cresswell & Washburn, Manufacturers, from 1889-1893.

Captain Cresswell is very much interested in the progress of the 3d Regiment and is one of the projectors of the new Armory.

NOTES

Captain Leon Dagit, Company "E," 6h Infantry, has a very excellent Company, one-half of his men having served in the Spanish-American War.

Colonel Bowman, Lieutenant-Colonel Good and Major Williams comprise a committee of the 1st Infantry, to visit Harrisburg December 1st, accompanied by the staff and line of the Regiment, to turn over the colors that were used in the Spanish-American War.

The unveiling of the Memorial Tablet in the Armory of the 3d Regiment Infantry will take place on November 25th, when the Regiment will attend divine service. It is expected that Colonel James E. Barnett, of the 10th Infantry, will deliver the memorial oration.

It is more than likely that our Naval Battalion will in the future take part with the land forces in the annual encampment. Colonel Frank G. Sweeney, the Inspector-General, has recommended this.

ARTILLERY NOTES

There is little doing in the artillery arm at present. Captain Wallace and his Battery "B" are drilling regularly and intend putting up a stiff fight for first place in this year's inspection.

The members of Battery "C" on Friday evening, November 2d, presented to their Captain, Francis Marion Bean, a very handsome regulation sabre and belt as a mark of esteem in which the Captain is held by his men. The inscription on the scabbard is dated Shenandoah, Pa., October 8, 1900.

Captain Warburton's men are drilling regularly in dismounted movements. The boys in Battery "A" shortly expect to have their Colt automatic guns.

It seems to be the general opinion of our artillery officers that the force in this branch should be increased from 72 to 100 men, the present armament of eight guns requiring a greater number of men.

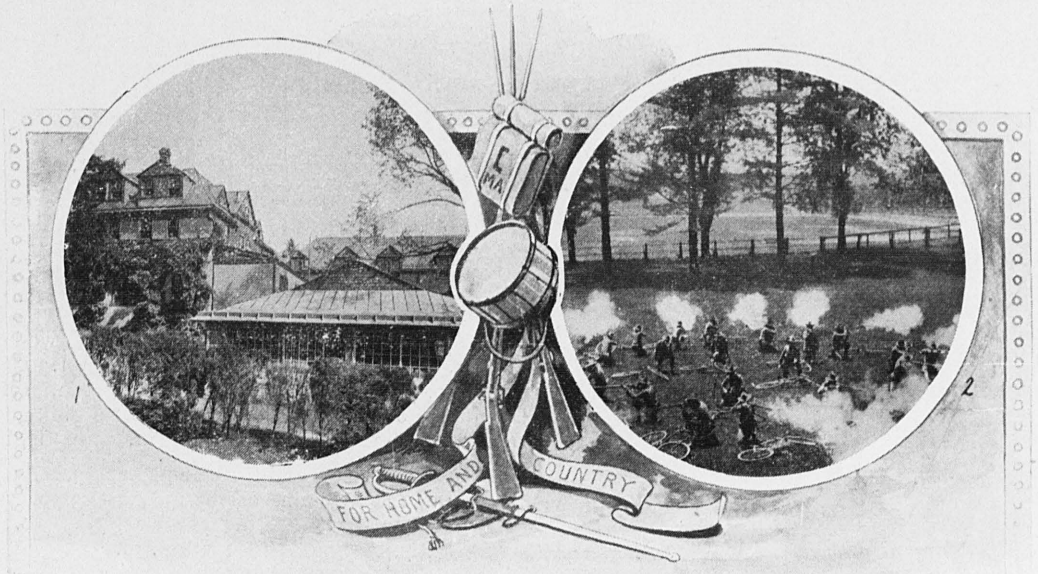
CHELTENHAM MILITARY ACADEMY

OGONTZ, PA.

(NEAR PHILADELPHIA)

"AN IDEAL SCHOOL IN AN IDEAL LOCATION"



CHELTENHAM MILITARY ACADEMY, on the summit of the Chelten Hills, near Philadelphia, has a location and environment rarely equaled for beauty and healthfulness. The School was founded twenty-eight years ago by the late Rev. Samuel Clements, D. D., and from its opening has had the best class of patronage and has met with unusual success in the training and education of young men and boys. A majority of its graduates enter leading colleges or scientific schools, and for the past six years its annual representation in such institutions has been equal to one-half the attendance of the school.

Among the features that have contributed to the success and popularity of the Academy, the following will at once commend themselves to judicious parents: 1. The attendance is limited to seventy boarding pupils, in order that the classes may not be so large as to render attention to the individual pupil inconvenient or impossible. 2. Ten resident instructors (an average of one for every seven cadets), selected for their ability and experience and for their willingness to take an interest in the welfare and happiness of the pupils. 3. An honest endeavor to train and educate the whole boy rather than to merely prepare him to pass college entrance examinations. 4. The moral tone and influence of the institution.

The next school year begins Wednesday, September 26, 1900

Parents seeking the right school for a boy are cordially invited to visit the Academy, or to communicate with the Principal. Rooms are assigned in order of application.
